Alberta (Bert) Gray

1946-2023

A Tribute to Alberta Gray - Bert! By Linda Puckett

Bert was the sweetest person in the world, who always saw the best in everyone she met. For years Bert fought the good fight against many health problems, including a kidney transplant, diabetes, and blood cancer. Bert never complained about her own problems, but she was the best listener and calming influence when faced with other people's problems. She was a true friend.

Bert's life revolved around her dogs. She loved to train and show them in many venues including obedience, agility, herding, rally, scent work, conformation, and tracking. Bert adored her many Shih Tzu over the years and later her Border Collies, when Darby, her heart dog, and Mia (pictured) joined the "little people!" We can only imagine that there was a huge party at the Rainbow Bridge when Bert arrived!

Bert joined BDOC over twenty years ago. Along with a stint as President and many years as a board member, Bert brought many new ideas to the club over the years. She introduced the Veterans Run at our Agility Trials, which later was expanded to include a Veterans Parade at our Obedience Trials. It was wonderful to watch as each dog re-lived its glory days! There wasn't a dry eye, especially Bert's, and this was a big hit for many years. Bert was very involved in every aspect of the club, and she helped at every BDOC event that she could, right up to the end of her life.

Bert is sorely missed by us all. We know that she is smiling her sweet smile down on us, with her Shih Tzu on her lap and Darby by her side. She is at peace knowing that her three dogs that survived her are living in the best homes possible, living full lives until they meet her again. Rest well, Bert.

CATALOGS

Catalogs may be ordered with your entries for $4.00 per copy. They may be picked up the day of the trial.

ROUTE TO THE SHOW SITE:

From the intersection of I-680 and N 72nd Street, turn North on 72nd Street, drive a little over one (1) mile. When you see the large radar ball (looks like a giant golf ball) on the WEST side of 72nd Street, you have arrived. The large white building is on your left, enclosed by chain link fencing and the signage reads Companion Dog Club. (Please note: your GPS will tell you it's on the east side of the street, but the building is actually on the WEST side.)

MOTELS

The following motels have indicated that dogs are allowed. Please inform them of your dogs when you make your reservation. They reserve the right to change their pet policy and rates at any time. It is your responsibility to verify this information. Some establishments may charge extra for pets in the room. Please pick up after your dog(s) and do not leave them unattended in the room so that we will not be refused cooperation by these establishments in the future. Please leave the motel and motel grounds clean. Any complaints from proprietors will be handled by the Trial Committee.

All owners/exhibitors should be aware that BDOC considers the entire motel and grounds to be within the trial limits. You will be responsible for all damage to your room and may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the rules of the AKC. Any abuse of the motel/adjoining grounds will be brought to the attention of the show giving club and its Trial Committee. Any exhibitor's entries may be refused for previous misuse of the motel facilities. This is an AKC supported measure.

RV Parking: RV parking, without any hookups, is available. Please contact the secretary, if you plan to bring an RV to this site.

Attention Exhibitors

Telephone, e-mail, and unsigned entries cannot be accepted. Entries not on an Official AKC Entry Form and photocopies of entry forms without the Agreement and Rules on the Official AKC Entry Form are NOT ACCEPTABLE.

Make all checks and money orders payable to Bellevue Dog Obedience Club (BDOC). Canadian exhibitors must make fees payable in US funds. Please mail checks or money orders with entries. Payment will be held until the closing date of the event.

Entry fees shall not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by veterinarian or judge, or barred from competition by action of the Trial Committee or AKC. The well-being of dogs, exhibitors, and spectators is of paramount importance; and in the event it is necessary to cancel or stop the trial before completion, no refund of entry fees will be made.

No entry fees will be refunded if the trials cannot open or be completed by reason of riots, civil disturbance, fire, an act of God, public emergency, an act of a public enemy, or any other cause beyond the control of the organizing committee. BDOC reserves the right to cancel these trials in the event of extreme weather conditions and no entry fee refunds will be made in such case.

Owners are responsible for errors on completed entry forms, whoever may make such errors, and no entry fee will be refunded in event of such errors or cancellation of entries after the published closing date. Changes, additions, or corrections to entry forms must be received in writing, by telegram, or e-mail prior to the close of entries. Those received by telephone are not acceptable. Refunds will not be given for a change of entry. Owners may write a new or additional check.

No refund for duplicate entries. Care will be taken to find duplicates, however, if an entry has been processed, no refund will be made.

No entry shall be made and no entry shall be accepted which specifies any conditions as to its acceptance.

Post-dated and returned checks do not constitute a valid entry. A collection fee will be added to the amount of each returned check.

Checks for withdrawn entries will be shredded. No check will be returned.

Exhibitors should follow their veterinarians' recommendations to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations.

Bitches coming in season after the closing date will receive a full refund of their entry fee provided that the trial secretary is notified prior to the start time of the trial and written verification by a veterinarian is provided.

It is expressly understood that exhibitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and/or children. Any exhibitor whose dog and/or children create unnecessary disturbances or repeatedly engage in unsafe or disruptive behavior may, at the discretion of the Trial Committee, be asked to leave the trial site. There will be no refunds of entry fees if a person is asked to leave the trial site.

Dogs may arrive any time prior to their scheduled judging. Dogs not required for further judging may be excused. Judges will not wait for any dog holding up a class. Owners or agents are responsible for the presence of their dogs in the judging ring when their classes are called to be judged.

Class prizes will be distributed in the ring to the person showing the dog. Claims must be made in the ring before the judging for that trial is over, and the Secretary advised at once. All ribbons/prizes must be claimed at the trial. If not, they become the property of BDOC. No ribbons/prizes will be mailed.

BDOC, the trial secretary, members of the trial committee, their agents, employees, etc. assume no responsibility for any loss, damage or injury sustained by spectators, exhibitors, handlers, their employees or children, etc. or to any of their dogs or property. Entrants and spectators to this show do so entirely at their own risk.

BDOC does not agree to arbitrate claims as set forth on the Official AKC Entry Form for these events.
