Entry fees shall not be refunded if a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by veterinarian or judge, or barred from competition by action of the Trial Committee or AKC. The well-being of dogs, exhibitors, and spectators is of paramount importance; and in the event it is necessary to cancel or stop the trial before completion, no refund of entry fees will be made.

Exhibitors should follow their veterinarians' recommendations to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations.

Bitches coming in season after the closing date will receive a full refund of their entry fee provided that the trial secretary is notified prior to the start time of the trial and written verification by a veterinarian is provided.

It is expressly understood that exhibitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and/or children. Any exhibitor whose dog and/or children create unnecessary disturbances or repeatedly engage in unsafe or disruptive behavior may, at the discretion of the Trial Committee, be asked to leave the trial site. There will be no refunds of entry fees if a person is asked to leave the trial site.

Dogs may arrive any time prior to their scheduled judging. Dogs not required for further judging may be excused. Judges will not wait for any dog holding up a class. Owners or agents are responsible for the presence of their dogs in the judging ring when their classes are called to be judged.
